Make a school trip to Madurodam

What makes the small country of the Netherlands so great? Find out while having fun at Madurodam, a city full of miniatures, activities and attractions. Perfect for a school trip!

With the vast range of outdoor and indoor attractions, children of all ages can have the time of their life at Madurodam. The park has a neat layout. This also makes it easy on teachers and chaperones!

Roll up your sleeves

Step into the shoes of DJ Armin van Buuren and mix your own beats at the DJ table. Want to learn how to fly? You can, at Schiphol Airport! And in Rotterdam harbour, you can fill ships with containers. Of course, you can also play outside. For big kids, there is a playground in the Wadden Sea. Tiny tots can go to the Miffy playground.

History comes to life

Discover a lot about the history of the Netherlands at Madurodam as well. Go see George's story and experience the life of war hero George Maduro. At The Court of the Netherlands, you'll discover one of the most important moments in Dutch history. And at Orange Mania, you'll discover how the Dutch football team won the UEFA European Football Championship in 1988 and see what it feels like to become champions. Experience the waters threatening the Netherlands in the Waterwolf and help the steam engine keep Holland dry. And did you know that New York used to be Dutch? Board a real Dakota plane in Madurodam, buckle up your seat belt and get ready for a flight that goes beyond flying. Fly from one surprise to the next with The Flying Dutchman. Come find out in Madurodam!

Madurodam Children's Fund

Since 1952, Madurodam has been donating its revenue, between 600,000 and 1 million euro per year, to children's charities. Madurodam has now paid out more than 32 million euro through the Madurodam Children's Fund.
